

SINEAD SCANLON

• 175 Lakelands, Naas, Co. Kildare

• 087- 6829693

• scanlos@tcd.ie

EDUCATIONAL DETAILS

- MSc Environmental Sciences Trinity College Dublin
September 2006 to December 2007

The Masters in Environmental Science consisted of Taught Modules and a Dissertation.
Dissertation Title: "Pollution Status of the Boyne Estuary in 2007"

- Bachelor of Science National University Ireland Maynooth
September 1998 to June 2001

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

- Senior Environmental Scientist Oriflame Cosmetics
June 2010 - Present

Responsible for Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) support to product development and coordinating CSR projects within Oriflame Research and Development.

Responsibilities:

- Support formulators and other key functions within Research and Development with CSR expertise. Ensure that all natural, environmental and ethical information has been communicated accurately from R&D (via marketing, catalogue text, companies internal & external websites, publications and queries)
- Approving all new raw materials and their certifications
- Reviewing existing raw materials to gain knowledge on their sustainability profile
- Coordinating and supporting relevant CSR initiatives within Oriflame
- Supporting the development and communication of technical ethical and environmental policies

- Environmental Consultant White Young Green Ireland
January 2008 – February 2010

Environmental Consultant for an engineering design consultancy company responsible for all aspects of the environmental process, from tender design through to detailed design and construction. Working closely with roads, bridges, environmental and site design teams.

Responsibilities:

- Detailed review of contract documents, Environmental Impact Studies, planning consents and background reports (groundwater, flora and fauna surveys, noise, air and landscape)
- Generating bills of quantity and preparation of risk and opportunities register
- Incorporating all fencing and environmental barriers, ecological design and landscaping information into packages for certification
- Liaising with CAD Technicians to produce environmental drawings
- Managing sub consultant teams including ecologists and landscape specialists and liaising directly with statutory bodies throughout the design process

- Technical Compliance Officer

Oriflame Cosmetics

September 2005 – September 2006

Technical Compliance Officer supporting the Accessories category.

Responsibilities:

- Technical development and ethical/legal compliance of products within strict timings
- Researching and proposing materials to suppliers.
- Ensuring all certificates of quality, safety and environment are obtained.
- Final approval of product's technical specification.
- Working closely with purchasing and marketing to ensure successful delivery of all products

- Applications Engineer

Nalco Ltd/Intel Ireland

September 2003 to September 2005

Applications Engineer for a Chemical Water Treatment Company, as contractors for Intel Ireland.

Responsibilities:

- Analysis, interpretation and reporting of the chemical control parameters of process critical water systems together with the day to day management of chemical treatment programmes.
- Organising and managing onsite specialist Contractors.
- Nalco representative on Intel Environmental Health and Safety team.
- Monitoring stock levels, ordering of chemicals and invoicing.

SKILLS

- Proficient in Microsoft Word, Excel and PowerPoint.
- Excellent communication and team working skills.
- Strong data processing, report writing, and presentational skills